

Have Your Say - Join our Residents' Panel

Your local Clinical Commissioning Group is seeking volunteers of all ages and backgrounds with an interest in the NHS - people who want to do something meaningful to improve health services and make change happen

As a member of our Residents' Panel you will have opportunities to get involved at different levels according to what suits you and the time you have available:

- Level 1 – We will send you information and invite your comments on health service decisions in their early proposal stages
- Level 2 – Take part in workshop sessions to help redesign local health services.
- Level 3 – Become a local agent to communicate health information and gather feedback from local communities.

To join or for further information please contact:
